The Fisherman's Cup 70th Anniversary Football Tournament

On Saturday the 2nd of October, Mr Kempster, Mr Adams and 10 children from Class 3 and 4 took part in the 70th anniversary of the Fisherman's Cup.

The Fisherman's Cup is a football tournament involving schools from across our part of Tendring, one we have been involved in throughout its history. In fact, Mr Cole even played in the Fisherman's Cup when he was at school!

This year's event took place at the Royal Oak Ground, home of Harwich and Parkeston FC. It was our first sporting event for a very long time and competition for places in the squad was high.

On the day, even though we won one of our matches, victory in the tournament wasn't to be, but our team made us extremely proud, showing a great deal of effort, determination and team spirit and they played in some close run contests.

Well done everyone and thank you also to the parents who came along to support us.

Congratulations go to:

Daniel Blacker, Harry Partridge, Thomas Priest, Robert Reid, Matsy Reid, Freddie Sutton, Henry Sutton,
Monty Victorio, Melih Yucel and Semih Yucel
