Remembrance Service

On Sunday 11th November 2018 we attended the Remembrance Service at St. Mary's Church, Ardleigh.

This was a lovely service which began outside, beside the War Memorial. Curtis Oleforo, as the oldest Year 6 pupil present, laid the wreath on behalf of our school.

After moving back inside, the Year 5 and 6 children in attendance read out the names of the men from Ardleigh, who had died during the First World War - they did this beautifully.

During the service, our children joined students from Manningtree High School to form a joint choir and gave a super rendition of 'I am Dreaming of Home' - their singing and conduct were absolutely fantastic.

It was also lovely to see so many of our pupils attending as part of their Beaver, Cub and Scout companies.

Well done to all of the children who attended to represent the school:

Y3 - Megan Davis, Violet Nancarrow-Cooper, Maisie Reid

Y4 - Charlotte Bohanna-Smith, Brooke Davidson, Jennifer Owen, Jacob Partridge, Martha Scatola

Y5 - James Blacker, Arthur Elden, Harry Reeve, Rebecca Salmon, Lucy Waddell

Y6 - Curtis Oleforo, Sarah Scofield, Cary Thompson, Mollie Thrower

Y5 Music Workshop

On Thursday 15th November 2018, our Y5 pupils went with Mrs McKenna to Manningtree High School to take part in their Y5 Music Workshop.

Year 5 went to a Music Workshop at Manningtree High School and played instruments such as keyboards, drums and ukuleles. We also got to make music using computers.

While we were there, we learnt that C is to the left of the two black keys on a keyboard. Everybody loved the music workshop and would like to thank Manningtree High School for such a lovely morning.
